

Judith R. Zawatsky
Deputy Assistant Commissioner (Acting)
Director, Outreach and Stakeholder Management
Integrated Award Environment (IAE)

Judith Zawatsky is an experienced federal leader with proven success uniting multiple stakeholders to create innovative program and policy solutions. As the Deputy Assistant Commissioner (Acting) for the Integrated Award Environment (IAE), Zawatsky manages the day-to-day operations and staffing of the IAE program office and monitors the implementation of IAE's modernization effort using agile business processes.

As the Director for Outreach & Stakeholder Management, Ms. Zawatsky analyzes and advises on federal policy, guidance and regulations that impact the agile IT Integrated Award Environment (IAE), such as the Digital Accountability and Transparency Act of 2014. In addition to overseeing the Federal Service Desk, she leads all IAE outreach, including federal agency and commission customers, more than a million system users and a multitude of other acquisition and assistance community stakeholders to foster transparency, quality and continuous improvement.

Previously at GSA, Ms. Zawatsky was a Senior Advisor in the Office of Acquisition Management where she established the independent Acquisition Systems Group to foster acquisition integrity, visibility and accountability. Additionally, she served as Chief, Special Programs Branch of the Multiple Award Schedules (MAS) Program Office where she developed and implemented innovative approaches for transforming acquisition processes and program implementation for state and local access.

Ms. Zawatsky received the GSA Administrator's Award for Excellence in Efficiency in 2013 and Excellence in Performance in 2014, recognizing her work on IAE. She is a Lean Six Sigma Black Belt, and received the FAS Commissioner's Award in 2008 for leadership in employing Lean Six Sigma methodologies to reengineer the MAS contract administration processes. Ms. Zawatsky also received a FAS Commissioner's Award in Acquisition Excellence as part of a group effort in developing the MAS training program in 2011. Ms. Zawatsky served on the Blue Ribbon Multiple Award Schedule Advisory FACA Panel.

Ms. Zawatsky draws on 18 years of expertise prior to government service as a commercial consultant in government contracting and business processes. She studied Business Administration at the University of Maryland and holds a diploma from Georgetown University's Institute of Comparative Political and Economic Systems. Judith is a Harry S. Truman Scholar for Public Service.
